AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) Policy Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Department of Student Life, Services for Students with Disabilities at 845-1637.

PLEASE NOTE:

The handouts used in this course are copyrighted. By "handouts", I mean all materials generated for this class, which include, but are not limited to syllabi, quizzes, exams, lab problems, in-class materials, review sheets, and additional problem sets. Because these materials are copyrighted, you do not have the right to copy the handouts, unless I expressly grant permission.

As commonly defined, plagiarism consists of passing off as one's own, the ideas, words, writings, etc., which belong to another. In accordance with this definition, you are committing plagiarism if you copy the work of another person and turn it in as your own, even if you should have the permission of that person. Plagiarism is one of the worst academic crimes, for the plagiarist destroys the trust among colleagues without which research cannot be safely communicate.

It is also considered Academic Dishonesty to provide falsified documentation in order to obtain an excused absence. If you have any questions regarding plagiarism, please consult the latest issue of the Texas A&M University Student Rules, under the section "Scholastic Dishonesty".

1. It is the responsibility of the student to inform his/her instructor if they have a condition that may impair or influence participation in an activity class (e.g. physical handicap, use of medication, etc.).
2. Should you become unable to participate in or complete the skill evaluation in this activity class, alternative methods of evaluation may be provided at the instructor's discretion.
3. The courses in which you have elected to participate are either required as part of your major or elected. Regardless of the case, you must realize that there is a certain assumption of risk, which you engender when you participate in activity classes such as these. You must be aware of the assumption.
4. KINE 199 may be taken for a grade or pass/fail. You may change this option up until the Q-drop deadline. After the Q-drop deadline the P/F or grade option cannot be changed.
Please note that students under catalogue Edition 136 or earlier must have at least one KINE 199 that was taken pass/fail.
5. Students are fully expected to attend each class from the start of the class period until dismissed by the professor. Leaving class prior to dismissal by professor is considered a violation of departmental rules, and may result in the student being charged with an Aggie Honor Code violation.
6. Your coach may find it beneficial to the learning process to assist you in movements or body positions in this course. These actions may require physical contact with some students. If the contact makes you uncomfortable please communicate that to the coach and every effort will be made to minimize this contact

For classes that meet two times a week for the full semester:

A student shall be allowed 2 unexcused absences without penalty. For each unexcused absence beyond the first two unexcused absences, 15 points will be deducted from the final grade. PLEASE NOTE: A student will automatically fail upon receiving 4th unexcused absence. Excused absences, as defined in Rule 7 <http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule07> of the Texas A&M University Student Rules will not result in any point deduction, however written documentation will be required to receive an excused absence. Any combination of excused and unexcused absences totaling 7 or more, where no more than 3 absences are unexcused will require a grade of Incomplete to be issued in the class.

For classes that meet once a week for the full semester:

A student shall be allowed 1 unexcused absences without penalty. For each additional unexcused absence, 20 points will be deducted from the final grade. PLEASE NOTE: A student will automatically fail upon receiving 3rd unexcused absence. Excused absences, as defined in Rule 7 <http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule07> of the Texas A&M University Student Rules will not result in any point deduction, however written documentation will be required to receive an excused absence. Any combination of excused and unexcused absence totaling 4 or more, where no more than 2 absences are unexcused will require a grade of Incomplete to be issued in the class. One point will be deducted from the final grade for each tardy up to 10 minutes. After 10 minutes, the student is considered absent.

Makeup work for unexcused absences is handled at the instructor's discretion.

The Physical Education Activity Program does not accept the Texas A&M University Explanatory Statement for Absence from Class form available at <http://attendance.tamu.edu> as documentation for an excused absence.
